

Spring Branch Independent School District 2011 Accountability Summary

To determine the ratings under the standard accountability procedures, the accountability rating system for Texas public schools and districts uses four basic indicators:

- Spring 2011 performance on all versions of the Texas Assessment of Knowledge and Skills, or TAKS Test. This includes TAKS, TAKS-Accommodated, TAKS-Modified, and TAKS-Alt
- The Progress of English Language Learners
- The Completion Rate II for the class of 2010, and
- The 2009-2010 Annual Dropout Rate for grades 7 and 8.

Exemplary	meets or exceeds state exemplary standards
Recognized	meets or exceeds required improvement and within 10% of state exemplary standards
Academically Acceptable	below the exemplary and recognized standards but exceeds the academically unacceptable standards
Academically Unacceptable	below the state clearly unacceptable performance standard and does not meet required improvement

You can find the accountability ratings for any Texas district or school for 2011 or any year back to 1994 at the Texas Education Agency (TEA) website: <http://www.tea.state.tx.us/perfreport/account/>
