Summer Wonders is a nonresidential, full or half-day program that allows students to explore diverse subjects in a challenging, creative environment through an integrative, hands-on non-traditional approach. While topics are academic in nature, they are presented in a fun, creative manner that inspires critical thinking and enables students to solve problems and effect discovery. Content areas include but are not limited to science, math, art, drama, social studies, literature and economics. The program is non-profit with some scholarships offered. Extended care (3PM – 5:30PM) is available by special arrangement. Our enrollment in years past has included international students, children from other states, and a number of children from Texas cities outside Austin, as well as from every school district in and around Austin.

EVALUATING APPLICATIONS

- Three different people independently read and evaluate all scholarship applications.
- Written responses on the applications are evaluated holistically on the following 8-point scale:
 - 8—Superior
 - 7—Between Superior and Commendable
 - 6—Commendable
 - 5—Between Commendable and Acceptable
 - 4—Acceptable
 - 3—Between Acceptable and Limited
 - 2—Limited
 - 1—Inadequate

EVALUATING APPLICATIONS

Superior: This response answers the questions very thoroughly and completely. Wording is clear and precise, leaving no doubts about the intended meaning. There are detailed and elaborated responses, providing specific and appropriate examples about the applicant.

TIPS FOR BETTER APPLICATIONS

- Applicants: Carefully choose who you want to write your adult recommendation.
- *Select someone who will do a thorough job. It can be any adult—teacher, scout, leader, church leader, family friend, etc.
- *Be sure to point out to them that what is wanted are specific examples of your strengths.
- *Don't hand the form to them the day before it is due—people need time to think.

TIPS FOR BETTER APPLICATIONS

- Parents and Adults/Professionals:
 - * It is best to write about the applicant's interests and/or personality than listing a series of awards. Evaluators want to know more about the individual person.

TIPS FOR BETTER APPLICATIONS

- For everyone:

- * Remember that all the scholarship applicants are gifted, and most are also excellent students. Be sure to include specific information and avoid the kind of general comments that are too “generic.”

COMMENTS THAT ARE “GENERIC”

- “She is great in everything.”
- “He would benefit from this program.”
- “Excellent student!”
- “Highly motivated student.”
- “She has many talents.”
- “He’s a kind young man who gets along well with others.”

These comments are not specific and could apply to almost any applicant!

TIPS FOR BETTER APPLICATIONS

- Parents:

*Information about hobbies and interests outside of school are helpful and provide the evaluator with a fuller picture of your child. This can help distinguish your child from other applicants.

GOOD COMMENTS—PARENTS

- “He has an intense love for nature and loves learning. Last week he and his brothers dissected owl pellets, and now he is making a book about it.”
- “She has been an assistant to preschool classes at the dance studio for a year, gaining reward as the little ones accomplish steps one by one.”
- “His greatest passion is his computer work. He has set up websites for businesses for profit, and he has done it free for friends, families, and charitable organizations.”

These give details and specific examples!

TIPS FOR BETTER APPLICATIONS

- Adults/Professionals:

*Information about projects and extracurricular activities at school are very helpful and provide a fuller picture of the applicant to the evaluators. This can help distinguish them from other applicants.

GOOD COMMENTS—ADULTS

- “He learned sign language so he could communicate with a deaf student in the room; now he is begun researching how new signs are developed.”
- “She has natural leadership ability as evidenced by her organization of a support group for abuse victims.”
- “She always demands the best from herself. She often practices long after others have gone home and arrives before anyone else.”

These give details and specific examples!

TIPS FOR BETTER APPLICATIONS

- Read all instructions and make sure that the application is complete and submitted on time:
 - *Remember that the application must be postmarked by March 1. If not, then it is eliminated from consideration.
